

POSITION OVERVIEW

Job Title: Art Teacher

Campus: Upper School

Reports to: Upper School Director

Status: Full-time, 10-month

Job Description

Norfolk Christian Schools is seeking a passionate, Christ-centered educator to lead our Middle and High School Art program. This isn't just about teaching techniques; it's about helping students discover their identity as "sub-creators" made in the image of God. You will be responsible for fostering a studio environment where students can explore diverse media, develop technical proficiency, and understand the historical and spiritual significance of the arts.

This position will teach the following classes:

Art grades 6-8, Art I, II, and III, 3D Art

Qualifications

- A strong, personal faith in Christ lived out in Christian character and worldview
- Bachelor's degree in the applicable field of education from an accredited college or university.
- Must have or be eligible for a teaching license from VDOE

Contract Details

- Contracted by the Head of School upon recommendation of the school administrator for one year.
- Responsible to School Directors
- Supervises Students and Volunteers

It is the mission of Norfolk Christian Schools to equip students spiritually, intellectually, and physically to love God and serve Him as Christ's ambassadors in the world.

Key Responsibilities

- Instructional Excellence: Design and implement a comprehensive curriculum for grades 6–12, covering foundational drawing and painting, 3D design, and advanced portfolio development.
- Spiritual Leadership: Integrate a Biblical worldview into every lesson, helping students see art as a medium for truth, beauty, and worship.
- Studio Management: Oversee the art room budget, maintain equipment (kilns, easels, digital tools), and ensure a safe, organized environment for creativity.
- Student Mentorship: Guide high school students in building competitive portfolios for college admissions and regional competitions (e.g., Scholastic Art Awards).
- Community Engagement: Curate and install student art exhibitions for school events, local galleries, and the annual NCS Fine Arts Showcase.
